SCHOLARSHIPS

Needs-based scholarships to cover some portion of the 2005 National Diversity Conference costs (registration fees and/or travel support) will be available to conference participants on some limited basis. Individuals with disabilities and members of underserved populations will be especially encouraged to apply for the funds. In particular, participants from 1994 institutions who have a need are encouraged to apply for support.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Scholarships to cover registration fees and/or up to $500 in travel support are available to qualified conference participants. The size of individual grants will depend on the number of qualified applications received by the Planning Committee and the level of need indicated in the applications. Please note the following important information.

* Scholarship applications must be received by: March 11, 2005

Scholarship funds are limited. Please apply as soon as possible. Awards will be given on a first come, first served basis.

Participants should submit the scholarship application in advance of registering for the conference.

* If you are awarded travel support monies, these funds will be provided as a reimbursement to you following the conference.

*Receipts for travel expenses must be submitted after the conference to receive your travel reimbursement. Please retain receipts for meals, transportation, lodging, and other travel costs for the conference – you must provide these to be reimbursed. A travel reimbursement form will be provided to you at the conference.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

1. Applicants are invited to submit a one-page letter requesting scholarship funds. The letter must include the following:

Name, Postal Address, Phone Number, Fax number, Email address (if available), of the person making the application and who plans to attend the 2005 Diversity Conference.

2. The amount of funding requested.

3. A brief explanation of your need for a scholarship.

4. A description of how you expect to use the information learned at the conference to benefit diversity efforts in your state/county/institution.

5. Complete the estimated travel expense form and attach it with the letter

6. Send the letter and form to:
